

Brittany Lambert-Brown

Mrs. Brittany Lambert-Brown is a Licensed Mental Health Counselor, Qualified Supervisor, and Non-Profit Professional with experience working in community, academic, and research settings. She obtained a bachelor's degree in Psychology in 2007 and a master's degree in Mental Health Counseling in 2012 from the University of Miami. Since 2007, Mrs. Lambert-Brown has worked in non-profit organizations focused on understanding the needs of the South Florida community and facilitating access to high-quality services. Mrs. Lambert-Brown has served in various roles as a research professional, clinician, clinical supervisor, and management professional. Within the Behavioral Health arena, Mrs. Lambert-Brown has experience overseeing and providing professional counseling services that take into account the unique needs, cultural background, and experiences of the client. Mrs. Lambert-Brown has experience working with children, adolescents, and adults with a range of concerns including depression, anxiety, adjustment problems, behavioral issues, substance abuse, and history of trauma (including sexual abuse/assault and domestic violence). She has also received extensive training to provide specialized treatment services to victims of trauma.

As a management professional since 2014, Mrs. Lambert-Brown has experience in non-profit management including quality improvement, quality assurance monitoring, data management, grant development and reporting, program development and process management, strategic planning, clinician and site-based credentialing, budget development, policy and procedure development, and program management. A majority of Mrs. Lambert-Brown's direct service and management experience has been in facilitating access to high quality services that assist under-resourced youth and families in meeting educational and/or developmental milestones, enhancing social emotional wellness, and obtaining economic sustainability. Currently, Mrs. Lambert-Brown is serving as the Chief Programs Officer for the Overtown Youth Center (OYC Miami) overseeing comprehensive services for youth (ages 5-25), adults, and families in some of the most underserved neighborhoods in South Florida.

Brittany Lambert-Brown, LMHC
Chief Programs Officer