

Eduardo (Eddy) Arriola. Chairman of the Board, President and Chief Executive Officer of Apollo Bank. Prior to founding Apollo Bank, Mr. Arriola was involved in several entrepreneurial businesses in the technology and business service industries. Mr. Arriola is considered a leader in the banking community. He is currently serving his first term as a Director of the Federal Reserve Bank of Atlanta, Miami Branch. He is a past board member of the Florida Bankers Association and BankServ. Mr. Arriola has been a leader in matters involving international policy and commerce. Mr. Arriola serves as the Chairman of the Board of the Inter-American Foundation, an independent US government agency created to support grassroots development in Latin America and the Caribbean. He was appointed to the IAF by President Barack Obama and was confirmed by the US Senate to serve on the Board of the Inter- American Foundation; his service as Chairman and board member has continued through the new Presidential administration. Mr. Arriola has written business articles in several national and industry publications and is regularly quoted in many of the leading industry publications. He was a member of Board of Directors of Total Bank (which was purchased by Banco Popular de España in 2007) and was also a Board Member of the technology firm, gMed (which was acquired by Modernizing Medicine in 2015). He has supported many local community programs and has served on the board of several organizations. Mr. Arriola is a graduate of Boston College and the OPM Program of Harvard Business School and a long-time member of YPO and EO.