

Stephanie Heller Norman is the Founder of RKVIST, a service dedicated to helping families and organizations save, organize, and preserve their photo collection, now and for generations to come. She works as a Corporate Strategist for Ultimate Software, ranked #1 by Fortune on its 2019 list of the Best Workplaces in Technology for the fourth consecutive year. Stephanie began her career working in company management with Broadway Producer Manny Azenberg, winner of 80+ Tony Awards, on the Broadway productions of Broadway Bound, Dreamgirls, La Cage aux Folles and Ain't Misbehavin'. She returned to her native South Florida to co-found City Theatre's Summer Shorts Festival, entering its 24th season as "America's Short Play Festival." Stephanie is a proud parent of three children and lifelong Duke basketball fan and alumnae, serving as past president of the Duke Club of South Florida and current Co-Chair of the Duke Women's Forum of South Florida.
